

Local and Personal

(From Wednesday's Daily)

Vining Plans Xmas Tree—

Children attending the Vining theatre at the Sunday matinee will be greeted by Santa Claus and a large Christmas tree. Every child attending this performance will be given a sack of candy and nuts by Santa, who will be present at that time through a special invitation of the management.

Many Empty Cars Move—

The movement of empty cars to Oregon was especially heavy on Tuesday, three drags of 70 cars each being evidence. Sixty cars has been the limit, but the demand is so great that as the supply increases the sky is made the limit.

Jack Forsythe Has Mumps—

Mumps on the part of Jack Forsythe, son of B. F. Forsythe, principal of the Ashland high school, is keeping the family in Ashland over the holiday season. Before illness visited the family, Mr. Forsythe and his family planned on spending the holidays in Eugene.

Drill Stated for Tonight—

The last drill of 1922 will be held by members of the 484th company at the Armory this evening. This drill is required to bring the total up to federal requirements. It is desired by Captain J. Quincy Adams that every man be present.

Spends Vacation in Portland—

Lloyd Shriner, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Shriner, who is attending the Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis, will not spend the holidays in Ashland, according to word received by his parents, but will visit with his two sisters in Portland.

Picks Up Detroit—

While tuning in to various distances last night, Sam Jordan, of the Jordan Electric company, picked up the Detroit, Mich., radio station. Excellent results were obtained, and everything came through with perfect clearness, declared Jordan.

Equipping New Restaurant—

J. H. Groves has rented the room at 345 East Main street, which was formerly a part of the Square Deal grocery, and is installing fixtures preparatory to opening up a lunch room. Mrs. Groves was formerly in the Bon Ton restaurant for some time, and Mr. and Mrs. Groves have both had experience in the restaurant business.

Grapes Kept Two Months—

Experiments that may prove valuable to grape-growers of southern Oregon are being carried out by Frank Wood, of Grants Pass. A keg of Tokays, packed in redwood sawdust two months ago, were opened this week and found to be in splendid condition, and colored to a high degree.

Changes at Paint Store—

The shelves at the Rigg paint and wall paper store have been partly rearranged, those on the south side of the store, having been changed to go across the store about half way from the front to the back which makes it possible to work in the rear room and see any customer who might come in the door.

Improves in Health—

H. C. Sparr, who has been quite ill at his home in this city, is reported to be considerably improved.

Fire Pictures Are Shown—

Scenes of desolation caused by the Astoria conflagration were shown at the Vining theatre last night and proved to be very interesting. The slides were the same as used by Portland papers, and were very much clearer than those printed. F. W. Hudson, of the Camera club, of Portland, gave a short lecture during the showing of the pictures.

Here for Winter—

Samuel Swanning, who has been working during the past summer with the forestry service in Washington state, arrived in Ashland a few days ago and expects to spend the winter here. His daughter is making her home with his brother on Church street, and attending school in the city.

Talent Club Meets—

The Talent Community club met this afternoon. Miss Florence Pool, county home demonstrator, read an excellent book review.

Seal Sale Ends Saturday—

Sale of Christmas seals will close Saturday night and is one of the most successful sales in the history of the Oregon Tuberculosis association, according to word received from Mrs. Sadie Orr-Dunbar, executive secretary of the organization. This is the 14th annual sale of the seals.

Going to Eugene—

Miss Geraldine Ruch expects to spend the holiday vacation at her home in Eugene, and will also visit in Portland.

Passes Through Ashland—

Arlo Bristow, the Christian minister at Klamath Falls passed through Ashland last week en route home from Eugene, where he has been visiting his parents.

Visitors from Missoula—

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Graves, of Missoula, Mont., arrived in the city this week for a few days' visit with E. B. Shaw, of B street. Mrs. Graves is a niece of Mr. Shaw. The visitors expect to go on to California to spend the winter.

Equipment Arriving—

Some of the equipment for the Moon Lumber company's new sawmill and logging camp east of the city is arriving here and is being hauled to the company's holdings near the Green Springs road.

Stevenson Breaking Camp—

D. M. Stevenson, who has had charge of the construction work at the Hyatt Prairie dam during the past summer, is preparing to break camp Thursday of this week. A great deal of the equipment has already been brought out, and the balance will be brought to the city today and Thursday.

Talks in Medford—

J. H. Doran appeared this afternoon before the Medford high school and delivered his lecture, "Man in the Making." Mr. Doran has some 40 slides, illustrating his talk, which he uses in all of his lectures, and which he used today. He expects to appear tonight in a public meeting at Medford and deliver the same lecture.

Christmas Special—

Special prices on box handkerchiefs, crocheted yokes, towels, garters, men's pongee handkerchiefs and children's dresses and coats, all this week. The Needlecraft Shop. 91-4

Leaving for Oakland—

The W. D. Gill family left today for Oakland, Calif., where they will spend the next two weeks visiting with relatives of Mrs. Gill.

Will Spend Holidays Here—

Edwin Mowat is expected home from Corvallis to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mowat, of Beach avenue.

Looking for Visitor—

Mrs. Ella Sperry, of Mountain avenue, is expecting her oldest brother from eastern Oregon to visit her soon.

Shopping in City—

Mrs. Bess York Wade, who lives east of town on Emigrant creek, was in town Saturday doing some shopping.

In from Dead Indian—

Vernon Hooper was in from the Dead Indian country Sunday. He reports the snow two feet deep in the vicinity of his home.

Will Visit at Roseburg—

Miss Dortha Abraham plans to go to Roseburg for Christmas and will also visit relatives at Corvallis during her vacation.

Will Spend Holidays Here—

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Beebe, of east of town, are looking for their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Claire Beebe, to spend the holidays with them.

County Nurse in City—

Miss Marie Falldine, Jackson county health nurse, was in the city today assisting the Elks' in their plans for Christmas.

Attend Medford show—

Several Ashland people motored to Medford last night to see the performance of Kolb and Dill. Among those seen at the show were Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Loveland, Mr. and Mrs. Dillard and Mr. and Mrs. Farlow, H. G. Enders Jr. and Miss McCredie.

Here from Grants Pass—

Dewey La Moss, of Grants Pass, stopped in the city for a short time this morning to see friends. He was on his way to California points to spend the winter. The trip is being made in his machine.

Visitors from Gold Hill—

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Adams, of Gold Hill and Medford were recent guests at the Aden Spencer home east of Ashland. Mr. Adams is with the Beaver cement people.

Visiting With Friends—

Mrs. Nathan Gale, of Grants Pass, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Sherard, of East Main street.

Leaving for Independence—

Miss Leota Rogers, of the Ashland high school, will spend the holidays with her parents, who live near Independence.

Takes Truck to Portland—

William Heil, who has been operating a truck at the Hyatt Prairie dam during the summer, left Tuesday for Portland with his truck. Mr. Heil took with him a large motor, which the company was sending back to the factory in Portland.

Leave for Klamath—

Wallace Reeder and C. R. Rush left Tuesday for Klamath Falls and Pelican bay. Mr. Reeder has some equipment at Pelican bay, which he wanted to get before the extremely cold weather of that section sets in.

Delivers Piano at Hill—

The Whittle Transfer company delivered a piano in Hill one day this week, that was sold there by one of the local dealers.

Visiting in Sacramento—

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sanford will spend the holiday season with Mr. Sanford's mother in Sacramento, Calif.

(From Thursday's Daily)

Just Ask the S. P. Clerk—

If you don't know, ask the clerk at the Southern Pacific offices. A few nights ago, some one called up at midnight to know what time mass was Sunday morning, and last night some one called up from down the line, to ask the price of number one Newtown apples.

Buys New Truck—

J. N. Dennis has purchased a new Ford delivery truck in which he expects to make all future deliveries on time.

Putting in Bath—

The O. K. Barbers are installing a fine new six foot bath tub at their place of business on North Main street.

Leaving for Los Angeles—

Miss Ann Forberg, Hawthorne school teacher, expects to leave Friday for Los Angeles and Long Beach, Calif., where she will spend the holidays with friends. Miss Forberg's home is in Minnesota.

C. of C. Secretary Ill—

J. H. Fuller, secretary of the chamber of commerce, was confined to his home this morning on account of illness. He expects to be able to assume his duties in the morning.

Celebrates Birthday—

In honor of her son's birthday, Mrs. Max Gebauer gave a delightful party at the Oregon hotel Tuesday evening. The list of invited guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Coffman, Mrs. Porter, Irving Porter, Miss Marjorie Adamson, and Ted Gebauer.

Kramer Visits Dunsuir—

George N. Kramer, local representative of the Southern Pacific, was a business visitor in Dunsuir, Calif., this week. He went across the line Monday, returning to Ashland yesterday.

Price Services Today—

A great many people attended the evangelistic services conducted by Dr. Charles S. Price at the Armory this afternoon, and it was expected an even larger crowd would attend the healing services this evening. The services this evening will begin at 7:30 o'clock. Dr. Price is in Ashland just this one day, as he is anxious to return to his home in Lodi, Calif., in time for Christmas.

Miss Putnam Home—

Madge Putnam has arrived home from San Francisco for a month's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Putnam, 357 Vista street.

Attend Reunion—

Mrs. Bessie Elhart and son were recent visitors near Gold Hill, when a number of people attended a family reunion at the home of Mrs. A. E. Kimball, on Sardine creek. Others who were present were Mrs. J. D. Stearns, of Grants Pass, and Mrs. Lulu Dusenberry, Mrs. Nora Walt and Miss Mary Newton, of Sardine creek.

Phoenix to Have Tree—

The Christmas tree and holiday program at Phoenix will be held at Clyde hall tomorrow evening, at 7:30 o'clock. Parents and friends of the boys and girls are invited to attend. As this is the time set for the annual Christmas Sunday school offering, a special offering will be taken for work among needy children. A special treat is being arranged for the children. Medford is planning on a community Christmas tree about 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Tourist Camp Ground Empty—

There was not one machine in the tourist camp grounds in Lithia park Wednesday. Though those who have a mania for sleeping outdoors and touring over the country are few, there are generally one or two who defy the chilly nights and sleep in tourist parks in preference to warmer hotel rooms.

Find Wounded Man—

Medford police found a man giving his name as Pete Sopoff, lying in a weakened condition on the Jackson bridge Wednesday afternoon, with a gunshot wound in his head. An automatic pistol of German make, was found lying beside him when Chief Timothy arrived in answer to a call sent in by D. E. Phipps, who heard the man's cry. The police believe that Sopoff inflicted the wound.

Portland Minister Here—

Rev. Walter Van Nuy, of Portland, was the guest of the Presbyterian manse Tuesday, while conferring with Rev. Koehler on questions of Sunday school and young people's work.

Auxiliary Meeting Postponed—

The Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion has postponed its Friday meeting until the first Friday next month, January 5. Officers recently elected will be installed at this time.

Swans Enjoy Ice—

Though the small lake in upper Lithia park is nearly covered with ice, the six swans appear not to mind the chilly water, for they swim about as usual, searching the bottom of the lake for choice tid-bits. Their house is ready for them, and the door always open, but they continue to swim around up to the edge of the ice.

Standard Oil Force at Medford—

A school of instruction was held Tuesday at Medford for the employees of the Standard Oil company. Mr. Melchert, a specialist on gasoline, with the Standard company, was present and made known many points of interest in regard to this product. Practically all of the local employees went down for the talk, which was also attended by others from Roseburg, Grants Pass and Medford.

Buys New Chevrolet—

Carl H. Loveland, one of the city's most talented musicians, has bought a 1923 model Chevrolet touring car for a Christmas present for himself and wife. The automobile was sold by Mr. Zundel, of the Ashland Auto company. Mr. Loveland expects to make good use of his new purchase, as he plays for dances between Dunsuir and Yreka, Calif., and Medford, and is always in demand when good music is needed.

Mrs. Minard Ill—

Mrs. Claire Minard, of the Plaza confectionery, is confined to her home with illness. She has not been very well all week, though it is expected she will be around as usual by Christmas.

Buys Franklin Sedan—

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Gearhart, 72 Sixth street, are the proud owners of a new Franklin sedan, which has been delivered in time for the holidays.

Harold Simpson in Portland—

Harold Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Simpson, is now in Portland, where he is connected with the Whitcomb & Company, certified accountants. Simpson is a senior at the University of Oregon, and was selected by the faculty to fill the position in Portland for two weeks. Word received recently states that he may remain in his position for three months. He is not expected home for the holidays.

Leaves for North—

Mrs. Julia McQuilkin, of Ashland street, left Wednesday for Rogue River and Grants Pass, where she will spend the Xmas holidays.

Entertain Class—

Mrs. M. B. Riley entertained her Sunday school class at her home, 141 High street, from 4 to 6 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. After memorizing some scripture verses for the juniors and a clothes pin contest, popcorn and home made candy was indulged in to the delight of all the youngsters.

Those present were: Mary Poley, Jeannette Stearns, Charlotte and Naomi Sedim, Marion Hitchcock and Myrtle and Mary McCoy.

New Book of Rules Out—

The main indoor sport among railroad men, taking place before wages or working conditions just now, are the questionnaires on the new book of rules that goes in effect January first.

Provost Married Today—

Domino Provost, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Provost, was married to Miss Mildred Carlton, in Oakland, Calif., today. Mr. and Mrs. Provost are expected to arrive in the city in time to spend Christmas here with their parents.

Mrs. Bingham's Funeral Friday—

Funeral services for Mrs. Emily I. Bingham will be held from the Episcopal church Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Mountain View cemetery.

Students to Return—

Students attending institutions of higher learning in the Willamette valley, other than Oregon Agricultural college, are expected to arrive in the city tomorrow evening, the first train away from the campus after the completion of final examinations. Students will be home from the University of Oregon, Willamette university and Linfield college, at McMinnville.

Verne Blue Home—

Verne Blue, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Blue, returned home from Berkeley, Calif., this morning. Mr. Blue is a graduate of the University of Oregon, and accepted a chair in the history department of the University of California this last fall. He expects to visit with friends and fraternity brothers in Portland and Eugene before returning to the south. He is a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

Boxing Card Looks Good—

The entire card of 26 rounds looks better than any previous offering during the past year. Gordon McKay, one of the middleweight ring men of the coast, arrived in Medford today for a short training period before he meets "Battling" Ortega Friday night. Tom Sharkey will mix with Jack Edmonston for six rounds while "Battling" Friek will meet Danny Cummings. Performers for the curtain raiser include Roy Barclay and Kid Rogers, in the 130 pound class, Martin Bowers, of Gold Hill, is arranging the entertainment, which will be staged in the Natatorium Friday evening, and promises fans they will receive full value for the tickets.

Visiting in Portland—

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Logan are among the city people who are visiting away from home. They are spending a few days in Portland.

In Portland on Business—

F. W. Herrin is spending a few days in Portland on business.

Leaving for California—

Miss Johnson, health nurse in the public schools of the county, is expected to leave tomorrow night for San Francisco, where she will spend the holidays.

Social Circle Meets—

The social circle of the Christian church met a few days ago at the J. V. Wright home on Mountain avenue. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mesdames Wright and Webber. This being a business session of the circle, not as many ladies got out as usual. Those present were Mesdames Struthers, O. W. Long, Delpha Bryant, Frank Crowson, Minnie Wright, Hazel Webber, John Cochran, Fanny Leggett and Misses May Benedict and Sarah Sperry. The ladies of the church did very well with the bazaar on Saturday, and thanks are due to all who so kindly assisted.

Will Spend Christmas at Home—

During the Christmas recess, Miss Callie Vogell, teacher at the high school, will help decorate the tree at her home near Talent. She also intends making a trip to Portland before school resumes on January 8.

Visitor from The Dalles—

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Morris are enjoying a few days' visit from their daughter, whose home is at The Dalles, Or.

Makes Trip to Medford—

John Dill was a visitor to Medford Wednesday morning.

On the Streets Again—

J. D. Mars, who has been confined to his home on Third street for the past several days, is able to be on the streets again, although he is not able to be back at the shop.

In City for Visit—

William Merriman, one of the head traffic officers of the Southern Pacific company with headquarters at Oakland, Calif., was a visitor in the city recently. Mr. Merriman was called to the valley to attend the funeral of his brother, I. A. Merriman, of Medford.

Medford Aids Astoria—

A Christmas check for $500 has been mailed to Astoria by City Recorder Alford, of Medford, to help relieve the emergency needs of that city. This was the last important act of the city council before the present city administration goes out of existence on January 1.

Tidings Reporter Ill—

Ray W. Conover, reporter on the Daily Tidings, was missed from his regular rounds in pursuit of the elusive news item today. He is confined to his home by illness, though he expects to be around as usual in a day or two.

(From Friday's Daily)

Will Visit Home in Eugene—

Miss Marie Riddings, of the Ashland high school, will spend her holiday vacation at her home in Eugene, and will also visit sorority sisters on the University of Oregon campus, at the Alpha Delta Pi house.

Miss Leach to Return—

Miss Marion Leach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Leach, proprietors of the Hotel Ashland, will return from Portland this evening to spend the holidays with her parents. Miss Leach has been attending the St. Mary's college in Portland.

Here from Aloha—

J. W. McKeown and Ray L. Antrim, mail clerks from Aloha, were in the city overnight. A great many extra clerks are being employed during the present Christmas rush.

Klamath Falls People Visit—

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kimball, of Klamath Falls, were in the city today. Edward Sutton, of the same city, also spent the night in Ashland.

To Visit in Roseburg—

Miss Leona Marsters is planning on dividing the holiday vacation impartially. Both Portland and Roseburg are to be visited before school is again in session.

Fog Is Very Dense—

One of the heaviest fogs to visit Ashland enveloped the community in a thick blanket last night. The fog arrived during the dinner hour and remained during the night. Autoists were forced to proceed carefully. While a fog of this kind is common along the Rogue river, it is seldom Ashland has one as dense.

Coming from San Francisco—

Robert Foltz and Raymond Drow, former Ashland boys, who are working in San Francisco, will spend the holiday season in the city. They are expected to arrive in time for Christmas.

Will Visit in Washington—

Miss Zippora Blumenfeld, athletic instructor in the Ashland schools, will spend the holidays at her home in Seattle. Miss Alice Hays, Spanish and history teacher of Ashland high school, will accompany her.

Leaves for San Francisco—

Mrs. Gus Hedburg is spending the holidays with her daughter in San Francisco.

Doran Lecture Tonight—

The series of pictures illustrating "Man in the Making" will be shown by John H. Doran at the Civic club building this evening at 8 o'clock. These are said to be the most remarkable ever shown in the city, and also the last opportunity to see them. Mr. Doran delivered his lecture before faculty and students of the University of Oregon and Reed college, where he received much favorable comment. No charge will be made, but a silver offering will be taken.

High School Paper Out—

The Rogue News, No. 7, was distributed to the Ashland high school students today. The small publication is very neat and contains several Christmas features.

Returns from O. A. C.—

Earl and Elmer Biegel, who have been attending the Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis, have returned to the city for the holiday recess. Another of the boys, Milton Biegel, is expected to arrive in the city Sunday from Walla Walla, Wash. He will visit here for a week or ten days.

Anderson to Return—

John Anderson, a senior at the University of Oregon, majoring in Journalism, is expected home for the Yuletide season. John has been forced to pass up several trips home this time of year, owing to the fact that he is a member of the orchestra, which generally makes a tour of the state during the vacation period.

Coming from McMinnville—

Miss Leona Lennox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lennox, of near this city, will arrive home on the late train this evening to spend the holidays in Ashland. Miss Lennox is a sophomore at Linfield college, at McMinnville.

Leaving for Independence—

Miss Phila B. Hall will spend Christmas week at Independence and the week following at Corvallis. Before returning to Ashland she is planning on attending the State Teachers' association meeting in Portland.

War Cry Is Excellent—

The Christmas number of the War Cry, official publication of the Salvation Army, is being distributed in the city. It is excellent and has a great many articles of interest. In addition it gives a review of the work of this organization during the past year, with several fine articles.

Back from McMinnville—

Fred Koehler, son of Rev. and Mrs. Koehler, returned from McMinnville this morning where he has been attending Linfield college. Fred entered college this last fall, and will return after the holidays.

Mrs. Lowe to Leave—

Mrs. James Lowe will spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. A. D. Jilison, at 432 Vista street.

Christmas Greetings—

Get your fruit cake, mince pies, pumpkin pies, cream puffs, at the Home Bakery, 69 N. Main.

Return to Corvallis—

A. C. Keller and family, who have been visiting in the city during the past few days, have returned to their home in Corvallis.

Lester Phillips Returns—

Lester Phillips, who has been working in California, will be home for the holidays, visiting with his mother, Mrs. Leua Phillips, of 1068 East Main street.